

Lizbeth Atkinson holds a BM from Brigham Young University in Piano Performance and Pedagogy where she studied piano with Dr. Douglas Humpherys. She is a member of the National Federation of Music Clubs and served as Co-Chairman in Rochester, NY for two years and Chairman for District II in Columbus, Ohio for four years. She is a member of and judge for the National Guild of Piano Teachers. She serves on the board of the Central East District of the Ohio Music Teachers Association as Camp Chairman and has served for nine years filling positions of Vice-President of Student Competitions, Vice-President of Student Activities, Chairman of District Festival and Chairman of the OhioMTA / Graves Piano Competition. Lizbeth is a Nationally Certified Teacher of Music through the Music Teachers' National Association. She was recognized as CEOMTA's Teacher of the Year and OhioMTA's Teacher of the Year in 2015. Her current studio is in Upper Arlington, OH where she teaches 39 students privately and holds monthly group classes.