

Chad Greenwald – String Bass

Chad Greenwald has played extensively in every genre of popular music today. He has shared the stage with The Roots, Lalah Hathaway, Keane, Talib Kweli, Othello Molineaux, Joe Lovano, Flogging Molly, and has worked with members of Walk the Moon, OAR, Styx, Bad Company, Stevie Wonder, Ian Hunter, Allen Stone, Bobaflex, the Exies, American Head Charge and Bone Thugs 'N' Harmony. Chad currently performs with Top 40's act, Zack Attack. He also works with the Newark Granville Symphony, Central Ohio Symphony, and Capriccio Vocal Ensemble. He as well continues to freelance around the country with many different artists. Chad made his Hollywood debut in the Fall of 2015, when he appeared in "Miles Ahead" starring Don Cheadle and Ewan MacGregor, with a soundtrack scored by Herbie Hancock and Robert Glasper. Chad Greenwald is sponsored by, and endorses Accugroove Bass Cabinets, Genz Benz Amplification, The People's Amplifier, Gruv Gear Carts, Curt Mangan Strings, Countbasse Basses, Barker Basses, Uptown Strings and Monocases.

<https://www.chadgreenwald.com>